What are my responsibilities?

- answer completely and truthfully all the insurer's written questions including e-mail communication and completing the questionnaires related to arrangement of the insurance,
- immediately notify the insurer in writing of any change in the facts that were the basis (questionnaires, written and e-mail communication, including annexes) for taking out the insurance policy and any change in the facts that the insured stated to the insurer when arranging insurance, if they could affect the increased risk;
- pay the premiums agreed in the insurance policy, while the policyholder and/or the insured is not entitled to set off the payment of the premium with the right to indemnity without the consent of the insurer;
- observe insurer's instructions and act in such a way that the loss event does not occur and at the same time must avoid violating the obligations to avert or reduce the risk of damage caused by the insurance policy and generally binding legal regulations, and tolerating breach of these obligations by third parties,
- the insured may not, without the consent of the insurer, acknowledge any liability or accept liability for any damage, conclude a court settlement or voluntarily provide any compensation for "damage", except expenses necessary to prevent the increase or decrease of any damage or expenses necessary to prevent imminent damages;
- immediately notify the insurer of an event that is or could be associated with the insured's liability for damage and which could stipulate the insurer's obligation to provide insurance benefits in the future.

When and how do I pay?
